SELECTION CRITERIA

Since the University of Puerto Rico – School of Medicine is a state supported institution; preference will be given to qualified applicants who are legal residents of Puerto Rico. Students that can establish legal residency will qualify for state tuition fees.

Highly qualified Puerto Rico non-residents must demonstrate strong ties to Puerto Rico. To determine strong residential ties to Puerto Rico, the Committee on Admission will review the applicant's birthplace, high school attended, college attended and parent's legal residence. An applicant who meets two (2) of the four (4) categories demonstrates strong ties to Puerto Rico. Non-residents who demonstrate strong ties will be considered for out of state tuition fees.

Foreign national applicants with an established legal residence in Puerto Rico will only be considered if, at the time of application, they are either US citizens or have been granted a permanent resident VISA in the United States.

The Admissions Committee of the School of Medicine will consider the following selection factors in screening qualified applicants, according to a formula established and approved by the Academic Senate of the Medical Sciences Campus:

1. Academic Performance determined by:
 - a. General and Science Grade Point Average
 - b. Bonus points: in Sciences, Mathematics (Calculus) and Behavioral and Social Sciences courses, in addition to the required ones, approved with a grade of B or above
 - c. Consistency in general grade point average
 - d. The number of withdrawals as evidenced in the official transcript
2. Medical College Admission Test (MCAT):
 - a. All test areas of assessment are taken into consideration.
3. Non-academic factors, expressed in numerical indices, derived from two (2) sources:
 - a. Recommendation from the Premedical Committee or three (3) from current professors are required.
 - b. For extraordinary situation, refer to instructions for recommendation letters.
 - c. After an initial screening of all other selection factors, the Admissions Committee will determine which candidates will be invited for a personal interview.

ACCEPTANCE

To guarantee enrollment upon acceptance, the candidate must make a $100.00 non-refundable deposit within 15 days of receipt of notice, together with a written acknowledgment. The student must comply with the requirements specified in the letter of admission and abide by the recommendations of the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) as stated in the current edition of the “Medical School Admission Requirements” book.
